

Events

ON MONDAY athletes from Wheelchair Tennis South Africa along with celebrities and members of the Davis and Fed Cup squads will be playing tennis in celebration of International Disability Day.

It will take place at the Nasrec Expo Centre, Hall 8, from 9.30am to noon.

The Celebrity Wheelchair Tennis Challenge will be hosted by Wheelchair Tennis South Africa and the Office of the Premier of Gauteng.

Wheelchair tennis is one of the few sports where able bodied and disabled individuals can compete with or against each other.

For enquiries, call Bianca

Morkel on 083 386 4002.

THE International Federation of People with Albinism and Blindness and the Maurice Freeman Recreation Centre will commemorate the day on December 3 and 4 at the Maurice Freeman Recreation Centre in Bertrams, Johannesburg.

The theme is Equipping People with Disabilities in the Aids Era.

The agenda will include discussions under the themes: leadership, HIV-Aids, the dangers of drug abuse, albinism and disability.

For enquiries, email: ifpab-world@yahoo.com.